Have you ever wondered zorbing?

Zorbing or sphereing, started in New Zealand in the mid-1990's. What's it like? It's like bungee jumping, it's like floating, it's like going on a roller coaster, it's unlike anything you've ever done before! Imagine been inside a giant bouncy beach ball Rolling down a steep hill up to 50 km an hour. Two people are strapped into the two metre sphere and pushed over the top of a hill.

"I didn't have a clue what was going on," said someone who has tried it. "I saw colours whizzing by- blue sky, green grass, blue sky, green grass – and I could hear myself laughing uncontrollably."

Have you ever wondered what it's like inside a washing machine? Well try Hydro-Sphereing, where one person rolls down the hill in a sphere containing 30 litres of water!
