Problem

My daughter is a typical teenager. She doesn't tidy her room. It smells horrible because she leaves old sandwiches and fruit on the floor and doesn't take the dirty dishes to the kitchen. She never does any housework. She never washes the dishes or hovers. And she never takes out the rubbish! When her grandparents visit she always says she's going out!

What can I do?

b. Circle the correct answer.

1. Who is the letter from?
 - a. a mother
 - b. a daughter
2. What is the problem?
 - a. The daughter never helps at home.
 - b. The mother is very strict.
3. What is the daughter's room like?
 - a. neat and tidy
 - b. messy
4. When the grandparents visit, the daughter ...
 - a. goes out
 - b. talks to them

READING

2 a. Read the answer to the problem.

Tom's Answer

Talk seriously to your daughter but don't say 'It's my house and you must do what I say!'. Be strict but fair.

First tell her she must tidy her room every Saturday morning. If she says 'No' say, 'OK, but I am going to tidy your room tomorrow.' Most teenagers don't want their parents in their bedrooms!

Then say, 'I do the ironing, your father does the cooking and the shopping and your brother feeds the dog. What are you going to do? You can choose your chore, but you must do something.'

If her grandparents are coming on Sunday, ask her to spend an hour with them. Tell her they love her and want to see her and she can go out later.

b. True or false?

1. Tom thinks the daughter must tidy her room once a week.
2. He thinks the parents must tidy her room every Sunday.
3. He says the mother must choose her daughter's chore.
4. He says the daughter can choose what chore she wants to do.
5. He thinks the daughter can talk to her grandparents when they come and then go out.

3 Read the letters again. Find eight chores in the house.

1. tidy her room
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
